The 1986 Mets World Series Championship team will be celebrating its 20th anniversary in 2006. The next few pages take a look back at the turning point of that World Series and what those players are doing today.

"THE INNING"

The 108 regular season victories didn't seem to matter much now. An eerie silence crept through Shea Stadium. The Mets' quest for their second World Series title appeared doomed.

It was the bottom of the 10th inning of Game Six, with two outs and no one on base and the Boston Red Sox leading manager Davey Johnson's club, 5-3. A message flashed on the scoreboard congratulating the Red Sox on their apparent championship. The pain and suffering would begin with one more out.

But, a funny thing happened on the way to that sure defeat. The Mets staged the most improbable rally in franchise history, which catapulted them to a breathtaking triumph in Game Six and their second World Series crown two days later.

Twenty years have not dulled the memories of the participants in tha fateful inning.

"After the second, out I glanced over towards the Red Sox dugout," said then-third base coach, Buddy Harrelson. "Everyone was on the top step, except for my old roommate Tom Seaver, who had his back to the wall by the television cameras. Tom stuck out his thumb and brought it to his ear like he was on the phone saying he would call me the next day. That's when all the craziness started."

Boston had taken the lead in the top of the 10th on a leadoff home run by Dave Henderson and an RBI single by Marty Barrett.

The Mets' half of the inning began on two inauspicious notes. Wally Backman flew out to left and Keith Hernandez flied out to centerfield, leaving one out to go.

Even though the Red Sox scored two runs in the top of the 10th, Backman was not without hope when he came to bat.

"We had so many come-from-behind wins during the year," said Wally. "There wasn't any doubt in my mind I was going to get a hit. I felt like I let everyone down when I made an out. I thought our luck had finally run out."

"Walking back to the dugout, I remember saying to myself, 'All those wins and the great victory against Houston in the playoffs would be meaningless now'," recalled Hernandez. "What made it worse was we knew that so many people were rooting against us because we were the bad boys of the league. So many people would be happy if we lost."

Gary Carter, the next hitter, did not want to become a historical note.

"I was determined not to become the answer to the trivia question, 'Which Met made the last out in the 1986 World Series,'" said Gary. "As I came up to hit, the Stadium was just so gloomy, but I was determined not to let it affect my at-bat. I still felt we were a team of destiny. We had so many comebacks during the year that I just knew inside we would do something."

On a 2-2 count, Gary singled to left. Following Carter was Kevin Mitchell, who was pinch-hitting for pitcher Rick Aguilera.

"I knew one thing," said Mitchell "I wasn't going to make the last out. Kevin Mitchell wasn't going to be the goat of the World Series." And he wasn't. Kevin singled to center, advancing Carter to second base.

It was now Ray Knight's turn.

"I was praying that I would get a chance to hit again after my error in the seventh inning gave the Red Sox a 3-2 lead," Ray explained. "After the half inning I went into the runway and just asked God for an opportunity to make amends."

On his way to the plate, Knight made eye contact with his wife, Nancy Lopez, who was sitting in the stands behind home plate.

"I saw she was crying and very upset," Ray added. "I motioned to her that I had it under control and that I was at peace with myself."

Knight singled to center to score Carter and advance Mitchell to third. It was now 5-4. Bob Stanley replaced Calvin Schiraldi as the Boston pitcher.

"Kevin Mitchell made a great play going from first to third on my hit," said Knight. "If he doesn't do that, he wouldn't be in position to score later on in the inning."

Mookie Wilson was the first hitter to face Stanley.

"Before coming up to hit, I was thinking that our whole season was going down the drain," said Mookie. "I just didn't want to strike out. I was willing myself to hit the ball some place, any place."

Before Mookie began to hit, Buddy Harrelson had a private message for Mitchell at third base.

"I said to Kevin be alert for a wild pitch or passed ball. Stanley has a tendency to be wild."

Mitchell remembers the advice too.

"Buddy put his hands on my shoulder and told me to be ready for anything," Kevin said. "When it happened, I was ready to go."

The message would soon turn into reality. On Stanley's seventh throw to Mookie, he uncorked a wild pitch that got by Rich Gedman, scoring Mitchell and suddenly tying the game at 5-5.

"I breathed a sigh of relief after that," said Mookie. "No matter what I did, we weren't going to lose that inning."

Another person who breathed a sigh of relief after the wild pitch was Johnson.

"For me, the wild pitch was the momentum changer," said Davey. "Once we tied the score, I knew we were going to win, I just didn't know how. Even when we fell behind, 3-0, in Game Seven, I knew we would come back."

On the 10th pitch of his historic at-bat against Stanley, Wilson stroked a ground ball toward Bill Buckner at first base.

"When I hit it I said 'Oh (expletive)'," said Mookie. "Then it got by him and the rest was history. Truthfully, I think I would have beaten it out no matter what Bill did, but that's something we never will know."

Knight had this view of Mookie's ball from second base.

"Buddy had me going on contact. When Mookie hit it, I just assumed it was one of 500 ground balls I had seen go to first. But as I rounded third, I looked over at first and saw the ball go through him. I put my hands on my helmet. I really couldn't believe what I was seeing. I remember hitting home plate so hard that I thought I hurt my back."

Harrelson almost beat Knight to home plate.

"I was half way down the third base line and I was yelling, 'Go, Go' at Ray," recalled Buddy. "We almost arrived at home the same time."

What were Mookie's thoughts after he reached first base?

"Honestly, I didn't even realize the game was over for a split second," he said. "My first reaction was to get to second base. Then it dawned on me that I didn't have to go anywhere and somehow we had won."

Wilson, however, does have one regret as he looks back upon the 1986 World Series.

"Sometimes I feel my career is boiled down to that one at-bat, and no one remembers anything else I ever did on the field," said Mookie. "Bill Buckner was a standout major leaguer and it is unfortunate that historically, he is associated with that one ground ball. We both have learned to deal with that through the years and that play has created a bond that has helped us become close friends."

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo was unveiled on November 16, 1961 and has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

AND THE NAME IS...
"THE NAME IS METS...JUST PLAIN METS."

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers... As well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

SHEA STADIUM'S LONGEST HOME RUNS

It is generally perceived that Tommie Agee hit the longest home run in the history of Shea Stadium on April 10, 1969. In the second inning, Agee hit a drive into the upper deck in leftfield off the Expos' Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 33-year history to reach the upper deck.

Dave Kingman had several monumental blasts at Shea, including one that cleared the back fence in leftfield (which is 488' feet away from home) and reached the parking lot.

On September 4, 1998, Mike Piazza hit a 485-foot two run blast off Atlanta's Tom Glavine to give the Mets a 2-1 victory.

Mo Vaughn cracked a solo home run off Atlanta's Kevin Grybowski that traveled an estimated 505-feet and hit more than halfway up on the Budweiser advertisement on the centerfield scoreboard on June 26, 2002.

Darryl Strawberry pelted the rightfield scoreboard many times, including a moon shot off the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela on May 22, 1987. Straw also hit monster shots off the Reds' Jack Armstrong, July 7, 1988 and off the Astros' Dave Smith, July 19, 1986.

Other big blasts of note are: Leon Durham breaking a car window in the player's parking lot off Mark Bomback in 1980 and Bobby Bonilla hitting a parked bus off Jeff Innis on Opening Day, 1990. Richie Allen also cracked a couple of extremely long home runs at Shea.

BIG COMEBACKS

Come-from-behind victories have always been a big part of Mets history. Possibly the most dramatic in club history came on June 30, 2000, when New York overcame an 8-1 eighth-inning defecit to overtake the Atlanta Braves, 11-8. In that contest, Mike Piazza's game-winning, three-run home run capped off an amazing 10-run eighth inning. The ten runs tied a club record for most runs scored in an inning.

However, the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings. Sparked by Ken Boswell's three-run home run, the Mets sent 12 batters to the plate in the eighth, exploding for seven runs and cutting the deficit to 8-7. In the ninth, New York would bat around again, scoring four runs. Cleon Jones' two-run double was the deciding blow as the Mets posted the greatest come-from-behind win in club history with an 11-8 victory.

DOMINICAN BASEBALL COMPLEX

The New York Mets signed a lease agreement for a new baseball academy in San Cristobal, Dominican Republic on June 2, 2003. By executing this agreement, the Mets established a first-class training facility for the organization's Dominican players.

"By signing this lease agreement, we accomplish one of our long standing goals," said Mets COO Jeff Wilpon. "This facility will be one of the best in the Dominican Republic and will be consistent with the high standards of the New York Mets organization."

The meticulously maintained year-round facility has two full playing fields, a half field, a covered set of lighted batting practice cages, a clubhouse and weight room, meeting rooms and offices along with living and dining quarters for players and staff.

"Our academy in the Dominican Republic will vastly improve the playing and living conditions of our players," said Mets General Manager Omar Minaya. "We believe it will help our scouting and recruiting efforts as well as the overall player development process in the Dominican. We are excited to move our operations into this beautiful new academy."

History.

METS HALL OF FAME

JOAN PAYSON: The majority stockholder when the team was formed. Mrs. Payson was the team's biggest fan and she always could be found sitting in her box to the right of the Mets dugout. An heir to the Whitney family, Joan was a minority owner of the New York Giants and voted against their leaving in 1957. Payson was a majority stockholder when the franchise was granted in 1960 and served as the Mets president from 1968-1975. She was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

CASEY STENGEL: "The Ol' Perfessor" was the first manager in club history. Stengel dubbed the Mets the "loveable losers" but his style and personality outweighed the team's performance on the field. The Mets were 175-404 in his three and a half years at the helm, before he fractured his hip on July 24, 1965, forcing his retirement. Casey continued to work for the Mets as a scout, public speaker and vice president before he died of cancer on September 29, 1975 at the age of 85. Stengel's uniform number 37 was retired on September 2, 1965 and is displayed on Shea Stadium's leftfield wall. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

GIL HODGES: Managed the 1969 Miracle Mets to the World Championship in just his second season. Gil was named Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press that splendid season. Guided the Mets from 1968-1971 (339-309) before his death from a heart attack on April 2, 1972, saddened and shocked the organization. He is the third-winningest manager in Mets history. He also cracked the club's first home run off Larry Jackson on April 11, 1962 at St. Louis. Hodges' uniform number 14 was retired on June 9, 1973 and is hanging on the leftfield wall. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

GEORGE M. WEISS: The front office architect of the 1969 Mets. Weiss was appointed president of the Mets in 1961, signaling the return of National League baseball to New York. His first bold move was to hire Casey Stengel as the team's first manager and under his direction the Mets established city attendance records. He remained at the helm as the Mets president until 1966. Weiss was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1971 and he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

WILLIAM A. SHEA: The attorney for whom the stadium is named after was a driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York. Shea spearheaded Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983.

JOHNNY MURPHY: A native New Yorker and the famed "Fordham Fireman," he was the Mets chief scout in 1961 and helped assemble the 1962 team. He moved into the front office as a Vice President in 1964. "Murph" presided over the Mets as the team's General Manager from 1968-1969, acquiring Donn Clendenon to key the World Championship run. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983.

LINDSEY NELSON: An original member of the Mets broadcast team, Nelson is fondly remembered for his charm, description of the action on the field, knowledge of the game and outlandish sport jackets. "Hello everybody, I'm Lindsey Nelson" opened every Mets broadcast. Teamed with Bob Murphy and Ralph Kiner, Lindsey covered the Mets from 1962-1978 and was honored by the Baseball Hall of Fame with the Ford C. Frick Award in 1994. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

BOB MURPHY: An original Met, Bob Murphy was with the team from their inception in 1962 through the end of the 2003 season. Bob finished his career broadcasting more gmaes in New York than any other sports broadcaster in history. He was named the 1994 Ford C. Frick Award Winner, recognizing his broadcast contributions to baseball and also was inducted to the Baseball Hall of Fame. The trio of Lindsey Nelson, Ralph Kiner and Murphy alternated from TV and radio, but in 1982, Bob moved into the radio booth permanently. Fans came to eagerly anticipate the "Happy Recap" at the end of each winning Mets game. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

RALPH KINER: Also an original Met, Ralph Kiner joined the broadcast booth after a 10-year Hall of Fame career with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and Cleveland Indians. He was joined by Lindsey Nelson and Bob Murphy alternating from television to radio, before moving to the TV booth in 1982, where he still can be found today. Ralph has earned three Emmy Awards for broadcasting and "Kiner's Korner" is synonymous with Mets baseball. Ralph was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

BUD HARRELSON: The feisty middle infielder was named to two All-Star teams during his tenure with the Mets (1965-1977). The smooth fielding shortstop didn't commit an error in 12 World Series contests (1969 and 1973) and captured a Gold Glove in 1971. Ranks second in franchise history in games played (1,322), at-bats (4,390) and triples (45), fifth in hits (1,029) and eighth in runs (490). Harrelson would later manage the Mets from 1990-1991, compiling a 145-129 mark. Bud is the only man in Mets history to be in uniform for both of the franchise's World Championships (player in '69 and coach in '86). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1986.

RUSTY STAUB: "Le Grande Orange" was one of the most beloved Mets. Staub set a then club-record with 105 RBI in 1975 and holds the franchise mark with 24 pinch-hits in a season (1983). Rusty belted three home runs in the 1973 NLCS and hit .423 in the World Series vs. Oakland. He spent nine years in New York (1972-1975, 1981-1985), and ranks second on the club's all-time pinch-hit list (77), ninth in RBI (399) and tenth in games played (942). Rusty maintains his relationship with the club as a good will ambassador. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1986.

METS HALL OF FAME

TOM SEAVER: "The Franchise" sums it up. Seaver captured three Cy Young Awards, won 311 games, earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967 and won 20 or more games four times with the Mets. A nine-time All-Star with New York, "Tom Terrific" ranks first in franchise history in wins (198), complete games (171), ERA (2.57), innings pitched (3,045), strikeouts (2,541) and shutouts (44), and second in games (401). Pitched with the Mets from 1967-1977 and returned for one final year in 1983. Seaver was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992, with the highest percentage (98.84%) in Hall of Fame history. Tom's uniform number 41 was retired on July 24, 1988 and is displayed on the leftfield wall. He returned to the organization in 1999 as a television announcer and was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

JERRY KOOSMAN: "Kooz" won 140 games with the Mets in his 12 years from 1967-1978. Jerry won 19 games, including seven shutouts as a rookie in 1968. He captured two games in the 1969 World Series, including the series clincher in Game Five at Shea. The two-time All-Star was discovered by the Mets while he was pitching for the US Army. Koosman ranks second in club history in starts (346), complete-games (108), innings pitched (2,545) and shutouts (26) and is third in wins (140) and strikeouts (1,799). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1989.

ED KRANEPOOL: "Steady Eddie" was the only man to play in each of the club's first 18 seasons (1962-1979) and holds the club mark in games played (1,853), at-bats (5,436), total bases (2,047), hits (1,418), doubles (225) and pinch-hits (90). Ed also ranks fourth in club history in RBI (614) and eighth in home runs (118). Signed out of James Monroe High School in the Bronx, he was named to the 1965 All-Star Team. Kranepool, who was a fixture at first base for the Mets, had a home run in Game Three of the 1969 World Series and delivered a game-breaking two-run single in the deciding Game Five of the 1973 NLCS. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1990.

CLEON JONES: Cleon Jones will forever be remembered as the man who caught the final out of the 1969 World Series. Cleon batted .340 with 25 doubles, 12 home runs and 75 RBI and started in the All-Star Game in 1969. Cleon established a then- club record 23-game hitting streak in 1970. Jones, who played with New York in 1963 and from 1965-1975, had a .281 lifetime batting average with the Mets. Ranks second on the all-time club list in hits (1,188), third in triples (33), fourth in games played (1,201) and in at-bats (4,223), fifth in runs (563), and sixth in doubles (182) and in extra-base hits (308). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1991.

JERRY GROTE: Jerry Grote was the man behind the mask and the man behind New York's brilliant pitching staffs from 1966-1977. Jerry was named to the NL All-Star Team in 1968 and 1974 and was one of the top defensive catchers in the game. Grote ranks third on the club's all-time list of games played (1,235) and ninth in hits (994). He established a major league record with 20 putouts in Tom Seaver's 19-strikeout performance in 1970. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1992.

TUG McGRAW: The sparkplug closer for the Mets helped drive the 1973 Mets with the slogan "Ya Gotta Believe." McGraw, a spirited lefthanded reliever was with New York from 1965-1967 and from 1969-1974. Was 1-0 with a three saves and a 1.66 ERA in the 1969 and 1973 post-seasons. Had a then club-record 27 saves in 1972 and 25 more in 1973. McGraw was the winning pitcher in the 1972 All-Star Game. Tug ranks fourth on the all-time club list in saves (85) and fifth in games pitched (361). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1993.

MOOKIE WILSON: Mookie was a fan favorite while patrolling centerfield from 1980-1989. Wilson returned home to Shea in 1993, working in the front office, before moving onto the field as the first base coach from 1997-2002. He is currently maganging the Brooklyn Cyclones. He is the club's all-time leader in stolen bases (281) and triples (62), fourth in hits (1,112) and runs (592), tied for sixth in doubles (170), and seventh in total bases (1,586) and extra-base hits (292). Perhaps the most memorable at-bat in Mets history is Mookie dodging a two-strike wild pitch from Bob Stanley in Game Six of 1986 World Series which allowed the tying run to score before hitting a dribbler that trickled under Bill Buckner's glove, sending Ray Knight home with the winning run. Wilson was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1996.

KEITH HERNANDEZ: "Mex" was not only the co-captain, but the leader of the Mets in the late 1980's, which captured the 1986 World Series and the 1988 National League Eastern Division. Hernandez played in New York from 1983-1989 and ranks third in batting average (.297), seventh on the club's all-time list in RBI (468), and ninth in runs (455) and tenth in hits (939). His slick fielding defense at first base earned him 11 consecutive Gold Gloves. Keith's arrival helped turn around the fortunes of the franchise. Hernandez returned to the organization in 1999, assisting the club in spring training and broadcasting games on TV during the year. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1997.

GARY CARTER: "The Kid" was the final piece of the puzzle after he was acquired prior to the 1985 season. A four-time All-Star with the Mets, Carter hit two home runs in Game Three of 1986 World Series and started the game-winning rally in the 10th inning of Game Six with a single. The co-captain hit 89 home runs, including his 300th in 1988 and drove in 349 runs in his five years (1985-1989) in New York. His enthusiasm for the game and passion for catching endeared him to the fans. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 2001 and Major League Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2003.

TOMMIE AGEE: Agee played with the Mets from 1968-1972, batting .262 in 661 games, with 107 doubles, 14 triples, 82 home runs, 265 RBI and 92 stolen bases. Earned a Gold Glove and set then club-records with 182 hits and 278 total bases in 1970. Tommie became part of World Series lore, when in Game Three of the 1969 World Series vs. Baltimore, he led off the game with a home run off Jim Palmer and made two sensational catches that saved a combined five runs. He is also generally perceived to have hit the longest home run ever at Shea Stadium. In the second inning on April 10, 1969 vs. Montreal, he belted a ball into the upper deck in leftfield off Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 41-year history to reach the third deck. Tommie was elected to the Mets Hall of Fame in 2002.

The National League posted its seventh straight All-Star Game victory with a 7-4 win over the American League on July 7, 1964 at Shea Stadium. Shea's lone All-Star Game ended in dramatic fashion as Philadelphia's Johnny Callison stroked a three-run, walk-off home run in the bottom off the ninth inning off Boston's Dick Radatz to cap a four-run frame for the NL.

San Francisco's Willie Mays started the ninth inning rally with a walk and stolen base. He scored on an infield single by teammate Orlando Cepeda's infield single and error by Yankees' first baseman Joe Pepitone. The Cardinals' Curt Flood ran for Cepeda and Cincinnati's Johnny Edwards followed with a walk. Two outs later, Callison sent National League fans home happy.

The AL jumped out on top 1-0 in the first inning on a RBI single by Minnesota's Harmon Killebrew off Los Angeles' Don Drysdale.

The Cubs' Billy Williams and St. Louis' Ken Boyer each belted solo home runs in the bottom of the fourth off Kansas City's John Wyatt to give the National League a 2-1 lead.

The NL extended its lead to 3-1 in the fifth when Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente singled and scored from first on a two-out double by the Cardinals' Dick Groat.

The American League tied the contest up 3-3 in the sixth when the Yankees' Mickey Mantle and Killebrew opened the frame with singles. One out later, Baltimore's Brooks Robinson tripled both runs home as Mays just missed what would have been a spectacular diving catch.

The AL retook a one run lead in the seventh inning. The Yankees' Elston Howard was hit by a pitch and Kansas City's Rocky Colavito laced a pinch-hit double to put runners at second and third. The Angels' Jim Fregosi lofted a sacrifice fly to center to score Howard.

Boyer finished 2-4 for the NL while Killebrew was 3-4 and Robinson went 2-4 for the AL.

Ron Hunt became the first Met to start an All-Star Game with his appearance at second base. Hunt went 1-3 with a single in the third off the Angels' Dean Chance.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known at "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims in Nicaragua.

Early in the season, each team is asked to submit three candidates to a panel which will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, then selects a winner from the list of 30 nominees. Tom Glavine was the Mets 2005 local Roberto Clemente Award winner.

The Mets have had two national recipients of this award, Al Leiter in 2000 and Gary Carter in 1989.

SELF SUPPORT

In the entire 43-year history of the club, only two Mets pitchers have hit a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first home run ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded home run at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

CASEY'S LAST GAME

On Saturday afternoon, July 24, 1965, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Mets at Shea, 5-1...The game was the last in the distinguished career of manager Casey Stengel...Stengel was forced into retirement by a broken hip he would suffer later that night...Here are some details of the game: Jim Bunning struck out 12, tossing a two-hitter for the Phillies...Johnny Lewis had both Met hits, including a solo home run in the fourth that provided New York's only run...Wes Covington went 3-3 with a double, a home run, and three RBI to lead the Phils...Richie Allen added three hits for Philadelphia and Dick Stuart cracked a home run.

In the club's first ever trip to the post-season, the Mets sweep the best-of-five series vs. Atlanta, three games to none.

In Game One, trailing, 5-4, in the top of the eighth, New York rallied for five runs and a 9-5 win. Tom Seaver struggled, allowing five runs in 7.0 innings, but earned the victory.

In Game Two, two-run home runs by Tommie Agee, Ken Boswell and Cleon Jones lifted the Mets to an 11-6 win.

In front of 53,195 fans at Shea, New York advanced to the World Series with a 7-4 victory in Game Three. The lead changed hands three times before Wayne Garrett's two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth put the Mets ahead, 5-4. Nolan Ryan hurled 4.0 shutout innings to pick up the win and complete the sweep. Boswell hit .333 with two home runs and five RBI, while Agee batted .357 with two home runs and four RBI. Hank Aaron cracked a home run in each game and drove in seven runs for the Braves.

A jubilant Jerry Koosman leaps into the arm of catcher Jerry Grote after the final out of the 1969 World Series in Game Five vs. Baltimore.

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born.

In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph.

In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece.

A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335, watched the Mets shutout Baltimore, 5-0 in Game Three. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, Agee made a running, backhanding catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center, Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches ever just three innings apart.

In Game Four, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed in rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the base-path.

The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea, behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with a RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati.

In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed just six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort.

Jon Matlack was brilliant, tossing a two-hit, 5-0 shutout in Game Two to even the series. Rusty Staub's solo home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four runs in the ninth, two coming home on Jerry Grote's single.

The Mets scored all nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. However, the game will always be remembered for the fight that broke out between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. With the bench-clearing brawl behind them, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds.

Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game.

Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected a RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

New York lost its first ever post-season series, falling in seven game set to the Oakland Athletics.

In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would score in that inning.

New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, it would prove to be Mays's last hit in the majors.

The Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning of Game Three. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory.

The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win.

New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shutout the A's on three hits.

Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver.

Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven.

The Mets returned to the post-season after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game.

Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1, victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had a RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth.

In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory.

Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game, three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1.

Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series.

Game Six at the AstroDome was simply a classic, the longest post-season game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, Strawberry's double and Knight single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

1986 WORLD SERIES

BOSTON RED SOX VS. NEW YORK METS

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the world champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox.

In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shutout the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel.

Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two.

In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through seven innings as New York won, 7-1.

In Game Four, Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's seven shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph.

In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete-game for the Red Sox as Boston won, 4-2.

The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed, 2-0, in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2, entering the bottom of the eighth and, 5-3, going to the bottom of the tenth. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs enabling Knight to score the winning run.

After a day of rain, the Mets won their second world championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series.

New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had a RBI double in the inning and two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference.

The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3.

In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good.

The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four when Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series.

Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five.

On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete-game in a 5-1 win to force a seventh and deciding game.

Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

The Mets returned to the post-season for the first time since 1988, and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games.

John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win.

Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series.

Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench for Game Three with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI.

In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeño tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first post-season victory.

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series.

Gerald Williams had a RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One.

The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead.

In Game Three, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss.

Trailing, 2-1, in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory.

Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and, thus officially settling for a single.

Trailing, 5-0, after the first inning the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led, 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the post-season in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants.

In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1.

Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game.

Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York to a 3-2 triumph.

Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first post-season complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four. Jeff Kent collected the only Giants' hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

New York defeated their longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986.

In Game One, Mike Piazza had a RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory.

In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3, vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win.

The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three.

New York set a post-season record with five doubles in one inning (first) and they scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI.

Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career post-season RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out.

Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless inning, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS hitting .368 (7-19) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets met the New York Yankees.

In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and a RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino.

Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton.

The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced a RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings.

The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in the first three innings and hung on to beat the Mets, 3-2, in Game Four. Piazza's two-run home run put the Mets on the board in the third.

The Yankees topped the Mets, 4-2, in Game Five to win their third straight World Series. Al Leiter fired 8.2 brilliant innings, before Luis Sojo's, ninth inning, two-out, RBI single to centerfield broke a 2-2 tie. Derek Jeter was named the Series MVP.

NEW YORK METS COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Off the Field....Baseball is a game that depends on teamwork, both on and off the field. The Mets have formed partnerships and participate in activities and programs that touch people from all walks of life, and it is our pleasure to return the support of the community that so loyally follows our team. As illustrated in the following pages, it has been our good fortune to work with a dedicated group of community service professionals and volunteers from various agencies throughout the metropolitan area.

The New York Mets Annual Welcome Home dinner, held on the night of Opening Day at the Hilton New York, celebrates the return of the Mets to New York City in April. The entire Mets organization is in attendance, and the evening concludes with an autograph session with the players. Over $4 million was raised during the Mets 10-year association with the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The beneficiary of the 2006 dinner will be The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

The Mets and the Police Athletic League (PAL) have been partners since 1983 in bringing baseball to thousands of New York City youngsters. In addition to financial support for the Mets Rookie League, which allows 4,800 boys and girls to play ball in all five boroughs, the Mets host an annual PAL All-Star Day at Shea and donate 24,000 tickets to the PAL's Summer Playstreet program.

The Mets/Sharp Student Athlete Leadership Team is comprised of high school students who are recruited and trained to assist elementary school students in making the proper choices when faced with issues of drugs, alcohol and personal behavior. Over 1,500 students from 40 Long Island high schools make regular visits to 25,000 children each year, stressing what they can become rather than what they should avoid by promoting sports and education.

The Mets, in partnership with Banco Popular, continue to lend their support to the Summer Reading Clubs of the Queens Borough, Brooklyn and New York Public Libraries. Posters, bookmarks and tickets are distributed to over 200 branches, and Mets players pitch in by reading their favorite books to children and recording PSA's to promote membership.

The United Spinal Association Mets, a Division I wheelchair softball team sponsored by the United Spinal Association and the Mets, hosts the only Major League Wheelchair Softball Tournament in the parking lot of Shea Stadium every September with the assistance of New York City's Parks Department. The fifth annual tournament expanded to seven teams-United Spinal Mets, Magee Phillies, Tampa Bay Devil Rays, RIC Cubs, Vaughn White Sox, NEPVA Red Sox; and the United Spinal Yankees.

Champion Mortgage and the New York Mets teamed up during the 2005 season to recognize people who have made extraordinary efforts to support their community and change people's lives in a positive way. Each month during the season, Champion honored a 'champion' during a pre-game presentation on the field and make a charitable donation of $1,000 to the charity of the recipient's choice.

Everybody Wins! (EW!), a privately funded national non-profit organization, is devoted to increasing children's prospects for success in school and in life through one-to-one reading experiences. EW matches local companies and organizations with schools and takes complete responsibility for managing a volunteer program for them, making it possible for their employees to experience the joy of volunteering. The Mets are in their corporate lineup.

The Mets are in their sixth year of Power Lunch at PS 92, which is in the shadow of Shea Stadium in Corona, Queens. Mets employees are matched with a 4th or 5th grader at the school to share lunch and a good book every week from October through May. In addition to the lunch sessions, the Mets add their own special touch to the program by hosting a Reading Rally at the school with Mets players; inviting the school's 4th graders to a weekday game; and arranging a "Shadow Day" at Shea for the young Power Readers to see their adult partners "on the job."

EW! is currently facilitating Power Lunch for thousands of kids in 37 cities across the United States, including 2,200 young readers and their corporate partners in NYC.

The Mets host fundraisers for worthy charities throughout the summer in Shea Stadium's picnic area. One of those events, A Night to Believe, raised $166,000 last year and $350,000 over the past three years for Project A.L.S. and their fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease.

Since the Mets and the City Parks Foundation joined forces in 1999 for their first Summer At Shea benefit, over $1.35 million ($150,000 in 2005) has been raised for the hundreds of programs the Foundation brings to 250 parks across New York City each year.

The Starlight Starbright Children's Foundation provides innovative programs and services that entertain, educate, inspire and help bring back the joys of childhood that a serious illness, long hospital stay or disability takes away from a child. Over $300,000 has been raised since 2003 for the NY*NJ*CT chapter.

In February of 2004, the Mets renamed their spring training home in Port St. Lucie, FL, Tradition Field. The newly renovated stadium features a leftfield party terrace, a rightfield picnic berm, new premium box seats behind home plate, a modernized front stadium facade, expanded office, locker and weight room space, an elevator, a team store and new suite level.

Located just minutes from the new Tradition Field, the Town of Tradition is a master-planned community unlike any in Florida. Designed around the region's largest network of parks and open green space, Tradition is quickly earning a reputation as a premier residential and business destination on Florida's Treasure Coast.

A model of 21st Century community design, Tradition provides not only high-quality housing from the nation's leading builders, but also a regional employment center with the high-tech infrastructure necessary to attract Fortune 500 companies. Tradition is being designed from the ground up as Florida's first totally "connected" community, with the very latest in high-speed Internet access for all homes and a fiber-optic communications network linking homes, businesses and schools.

Located near the I-95 and Gatlin Boulevard/Tradition Parkway interchange (Exit 118) in St. Lucie County, Tradition is positioned in an attractive business and residential location, with close proximity to Florida Atlantic University and Indian River Community College in St. Lucie West.

Tradition is being developed by Core Communities, developers of the award-winning St. Lucie West community that has served as the Spring Training home of the New York Mets for more than 16 years. Once completed, Tradition will feature 16,000 residences spanning more than 6,000 acres linked by many acres of parks and open green space. Tradition's corporate employment center will stretch 4.5 miles along I-95 and offer more than four million square feet of commercial, industrial and research & development space.

For more information about Tradition, visit www.traditionfl.com, or call Shawn Reilly, Vice President of Marketing, Core Communities at (772) 340-3500.

SHEA STADIUM SCOREBOARDS

In 2005, the New York Mets debuted four new full-color LED (light emitting diode) displays at Shea Stadium, including an up-graded video board, two new ribbon boards on the press level fascia, and a color message center above the ticket windows between Gates D and E.

The Diamond Vision video board in left-center field was replaced by a high-definition LED board manufactured by Mitsubishi Diamond Vision. The new display offers HDTV compatibility thanks to a 360% increase in horizontal resolution, from 310 x 174 pixels to 1,120 x 640 pixels. The new Diamond Vision is the same height as the old board, at 26 feet 3 inches, but has been widened from 35 to 46 feet, to provide a 16:9 aspect ratio. This is the third generation Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video board installed at Shea. The first board was installed in 1982, and that original board was replaced with a higher resolution CRT (cathode ray tube) board prior to the 1992 season.

For 2005, Whiteway Sign Company of Chicago, IL added two new ribbon boards and an exterior message board to the state-of-the-art LED scoreboard system that was installed in 2004. The new Whiteway boards utilize full-color 25mm pixel pitch LEDs capable of displaying high resolution video clips, photographs, logos, animations, and text. Each ribbon board is 160 feet wide by 4 feet high, with a resolution of 1936 x 40 pixels. The exterior message board is 24 feet wide by 8 feet high, with a resolution of 288 x 96 pixels.

The Mets LED scoreboard system, consisting of the main scoreboard in right field and two smaller auxiliary scoreboards down the left and right field lines, was installed prior to the 2004 season. It replaced an older light bulb display system that had been in place since 1987. Utilizing Whiteway 34mm LED technology, it provided increased brightness for daylight viewing and a 244% increase in resolution. One important feature that did not change was the board's ability to provide a constant display of all out-of-town game scores from both leagues. The main message board is 20 feet high by 63 feet wide, and contains 492,800 LEDs arranged into 98,560 pixels. The two auxiliary scoreboard displays measure 43 feet wide by 8 feet high, and each contain 122,880 LEDs arranged into 24,576 pixels. The video and scoreboard displays at Shea Stadium are operated by the Mets Video & Entertainment staff, led by Producer Vito Vitiello. Vito supervises a game day production staff of 18 people. The New York Mets organization is a member of IDEA, the Information Display & Entertainment Association, and has won several IDEA Golden Matrix Awards for excellence in video and scoreboard programming.

IT'S A WHOLE NEW BALL GAME.

INTRODUCING THE ALL NEW 2007 CHEVY TAHOE.

THE BEST GETS BETTER

To be the best-selling full-size SUV once is an accomplishment. To be the best-selling full-size SUV four years running[1] is remarkable. But that's what Chevy Tahoe has accomplished. So what's next? We made the all new Chevy Tahoe even more capable. More responsible. And more refined.

MORE CAPABLE

The Tahoe Vortec V8 engine delivers the best combination of power and fuel efficiency in its class.[2] Imagine 320 horsepower. 340 lb.-ft. of torque. And an EPA est. 22 highway miles per gallon of gas.

MORE RESPONSIBLE

The all new Chevy Tahoe offers a feature called Active Fuel Management.™ It seamlessly gives you the power of all eight cylinders when you need them and the economy of four when you don't.

MORE REFINED

The Tahoe interior has available refinements you just wouldn't expect in a rugged full-size SUV. Like a new power remote liftgate. Class-exclusive power-release second row seats.[3] New rearview camera system.[4] Head curtain side air bags[5] for every row and class-exclusive heated second row seats.[3] For more information, go to chevy.com.
